RE: VERIFIED CLAIM NOTIFICATION AND DEMAND

Dear Honorable Receiver Robert Berleth on Behalf of Cyberlux Corporation,

Please note that my firm has been retained by Mr. Rick Tucker ("Tucker") and Mr. Neill Whiteley ("Whiteley") (collectively "Clients" or "Sellers") to pursue their lawful claims against Cyberlux Corporation ("Cyberlux," "Employer," or "Buyer"). Please find herein true and correct factual detailed account of our Clients' claims for Breach of Contract and unpaid wages, including attached fully documented evidence, establishing every element of our Clients claim. Since our Clients' claims are fully established herein, our Clients Tucker and Whiteley are entitled to participation in Receivership action in connection with Cause #202448085 and styled as ATLANTIC WAVE HOLDINGS, LLC and SECURE COMMUNITY, LLC vs. CYBERLUX CORPORATION and MARK D. SCHMIDT. Additionally, each and every factual assertion listed herein has been verified by Clients Declarations. (See Declaration of Rick Tucker and Neill Whiteley attached as Exhibit A)

To wit, I am certain you are aware from Court filings and your dealings with Cyberlux Corporation, that they have made it their standard practice and ambition to evade creditors, financially mismanage their company, and even intentionally short their own employees' paychecks, in an effort to allow upper management to fatten their bank and brokerage accounts by utilizing reverse Robin Hood tactics in order to steal from the poor and give to the CEO and his fellow upper echelon insiders. As such, it may not be surprising to you that our Clients have valid claims against Cyberlux for payroll deficiencies, to which Cyberlux has already admitted responsibility. Our Clients are thus entitled to priority payment for these unpaid wages, other resulting damages and reasonable and necessary attorney fees for the recovery of these debts/damages.

In short, there is no dispute here, as Cyberlux has already admitted and/or agreed they owe these amounts, and have failed to pay our Clients. As a result, Cyberlux owes our Clients the following in Breach of Contract/Expectation Damages:

- a. Tucker = $73,975.25 in back owed salary and bonuses, $625,000.00 for unpaid incentive shares, and $8500 in consequential damages, resulting in a sum total of $707,475.25 for Tucker, as detailed below.
- b. Whiteley = $62,537.56, in back owed salary and bonuses, $625,000.00 for unpaid incentive shares, resulting in a sum total of $687,537.56 for Whiteley, detailed below.
- c. The combined sum total of both Clients' damages from Cyberlux's Breach of Employment Contracts is $1,395,012.81, including attorney fees (25% of the total) the total is $1,860,017.08. See attached attorney fee Declaration as Exhibit i.

BACKGROUND FACTS

Tucker and Whiteley are honorable, hard worker, and responsible businessmen, who since October 30, 2014, have put all their time, effort, savings, blood, sweat, and tears, into building an amazing American drone manufacturing business, Catalyst Machineworks, LLC. They built this company from scratch as co-owners.

After being approached by Cyberlux in January and February of 2022, and based on Cyberlux's representations of being a successful, responsible, publicly traded, and financially viable company, our Clients decided to sell their company to Cyberlux.

On March 28, 2022, Tucker and Whiteley closed on sale of their company to Cyberlux upon execution of the Purchase Agreement (see attached as Exhibit B), in exchange for a small amount of cash and 25 million in Cyberlux shares each (10 million at closing and 3 payments of 5 million shares each year thereafter) to be valued at $.05 (Five Cents) per share.

Also, as a part of the Purchase Contract, on March 30, 2022, our Clients entered into a three-year Employment Contract (see attached as Exhibit C) to help Cyberlux by continuing to manage the business they sold to Cyberlux. As a part of this Employment Contract, our Clients are entitled to salary, bonuses, and additional "Incentive Program" shares ("Incentive Shares") per a detailed schedule in the Employment Contract, of which Cyberlux failed and continues to fail to pay 12.5 million Incentive Shares each to our Clients.

As soon as these contracts were signed, Cyberlux immediately began to slow pay the agreed upon shares and cash payments right out of the gate.

Since then, amongst a litany of dishonest and unlawful conduct too numerous to mention here, Cyberlux began to miss entire paychecks, annual bonuses, compensation of Incentive Shares, and ultimately “temporarily reduced” our Clients’ salary in 2024 by $75,000 per year, to be “repaid later” and have failed to catch up remaining payroll since.

Then, in April of 2025, Cyberlux initiated a layoff claiming they are still having financial difficulties. However, in this “layoff”, our Clients were the only two employees who were laid off and are still owed unpaid Salary and Incentive Shares.

CYBERLUX AGREES THEY BREACHED THE EMPLOYMENT CONTRACT AND HAS FAILED TO PAY REGULAR SALARY AND ANNUAL BONUSES

The employment contract (“Contract”) contains various provisions governing our Clients’ employment compensation during this period, including salary, annual bonuses, and “Incentive Plan” pay. (Exhibit C).

On August 8, 2024, our Clients received an email (See attached as Exhibit D) from Cyberlux stating that, contrary to Employment Contract, our Clients’ pay would be “temporarily reduced” by $75,000 per year, purportedly due to Cyberlux’s financial woes, despite the fact the Cyberlux’s CEO had just moved $4.4 million to his personal accounts. Nonetheless, we have it in writing from Cyberlux that it understands it still owes these unpaid wages and that they intended to pay this amount after the third HII (stands for Huntington Ingles Incorporated, a US Government Prime Contractor) shipment. However, Cyberlux never followed through on its promises and failed to catch-up these unpaid wages.

Although our Clients were under no obligation to wait for their pay, being at the mercy of Cyberlux, they continued to work in patient cooperation, as Cyberlux has gave them no choice in the matter.

Since then, Cyberlux has continued to fail to make good on their payroll obligations to our Clients. The amount of cash payroll payments still due is, Tucker = $73,975.25, and Whiteley = $62,537.56.

Again, Cyberlux agrees it owes this amount, does not dispute it, and promised it would finally pay after truck 3, but never did. See breakdown received from Cyberlux in relevant snapshot of chart below. (See also “Summary of Payments due Rick and Neill” attached as Exhibit E).

This chart/communication from Cyberlux shows the amounts still unpaid and due our Clients' salaries, Tucker = $73,975.25 and Whiteley = $62,537.56. This communication was included in a communication feed (See attached as Exhibit F) from Aaron Goodman (CFO) on April 9, 2025, agreeing and acknowledging Cyberlux still owes our Clients their unpaid wages. (See also "Summary of Payments due Rick and Neill" attached as Exhibit E)

CYBERLUX HAS ALSO FAILED THEIR CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS FOR TUCKER AND WHITELEY'S "INCENTIVE PLAN" PAY

It is undisputed that Tucker and Whiteley performed every aspect of their employment Contract with Cyberlux and are therefore entitled to expectation damages resulting from Cyberlux's breach of Employment Contract. According to the Contract our Clients are entitled to the benefit of their bargain for 12,500,000 shares for the year 2024, valued contractually at $.05 (Five Cents) per share under Cyberlux's "Incentive Plan."

Cyberlux has failed and continues to fail to pay our Clients' incentive shares per Section 7 of their employment contract, where our Clients are due 12.5 million shares each as of January 2024, as incentive pay based on the net revenue of the company see chart cut-out below. (See also Section 7 in Employment Agreement, Exhibit C).

7. Net Revenue Incentive Plan

During your employment, you will be eligible to receive net revenue incentive bonuses of both common stock awards and annual salary increases through the 2025 fiscal year based on the following Net Revenue Incentive Plan. "Net Revenue" is defined as gross revenue less any product

CMW Fiscal Year Net Revenue Achievement	Incentive Stock Award	Executive Annual Base Salary
$3,000,000	5 million shares	$160,000
$5,000,000	7.5 million shares	$175,000
$7,500,000	10 million shares	$200,000
$10,000,000	12.5 million shares	$250,000

Beginning January of 2024, based on the net revenue incentive chart above, Cyberlux began paying our Clients' salary at $250,000 per year as stated in the chart above, because the fiscal year net revenue achievement had been met in January 2024, due to an award of a US Government contract in the amount of $80 million dollars for Drones at manufacturing cost that Clients can't disclose per NDA agreement, but put profits to a measure that easily met achievement requirement for maximum Incentive Levels as highlighted in above listed Incentive Plan chart.

There is no dispute that this Revenue Achievement was met, as evidenced by Cyberlux's increase in our clients' salary to $250,000 annually in January of 2024 as shown by our Clients' W-2s (see attached 2024 W-2s as exhibit G), where they made almost $250k with bonuses even though Cyberlux, without warning, failed to pay all employee salaries (including our Clients) in September and October of 2024. Our Clients' 2024 salary ($250,000) is stated in the above chart right alongside the Incentive Stock Award of 12.5 million shares.

By increasing Tucker and Whiteley's salary to $250k per year, Cyberlux admits that the requirement for the incentive stock shares has been met, although this fact is not in dispute by Cyberlux who is aware they have not paid the shares, admitted to it and have given excuse after excuse for failing to transfer said shares to our clients.

Please see our Clients' most recent stock transfer statements, attached as Exhibit H, showing that our clients only ever received 25 million shares, and never received the additional 12.5 million in Incentive Shares per their Employment Contract. Also, please see below communication cut-out from April 9, 2025, communication from Cyberlux (Exhibit E), which lists that the only shares they have transferred is the 25 million shares from the Purchase Agreement, and not the additional 12.5 million unpaid Incentive Shares due our Clients under the Employment Contract.

Purchase Agreement

- Complete the last two share transfers (5 million each) for a total of 10 million to each of Rick and Neill. This results in a total of 25 million shares each.
- Status: Completed at the Transfer Agent

Although the incentive shares should have been issued simultaneous with the salary increase as mentioned in the chart above, Cyberlux has failed now for over 18 months to issue our Clients these additional shares. Cyberlux does not dispute these incentive shares have not been paid. Therefore, there is no question that Cyberlux is in breach of Employment Contract in this regard and are entitled to financial remuneration for said breach of Contract.

CYBERLUX HAS ALREADY ESTABLISHED THE CASH VALUE OF UNPAID SHARES, THERE IS NO DISPUTE ON VALUE OF EXPECTATION DAMAGES

Per the Contract, these shares have an agreed outstanding cash value of $.05 (Five Cents) per share X 12.5 million shares = $625,000 for each of our Clients, and thus our Clients are entitled to this amount in expectation damages.

According to the Purchase Agreement, Tucker and Whiteley were to receive additional cash payments and stock issuances over time under their Employment Contract. The Purchase Agreement in relevant part states (Section 1.02, and continued in part 1.03 (c), and 1.04(a)):

Section 1.02:

a payment of $100,000 at closing each to Tucker and Whiteley and a commitment at closing to make certain additional cash payments, employment commitments and stock issuances over time pursuant to this agreement and described herein as “Subsequent Consideration.”

Section 1.03 (c):

(c) Tucker and Whiteley each enter into employment agreements with the Company attached to this Agreement including a term that mandates increased annual base salary upon the filing of annual reports by the Company that achieve certain specified net revenue targets as specified in the employment agreement.

(See purchase Agreement attached as Exhibit B).

Additionally, the stock issuances over time, conveniently, may be issued as cash instead to affect a guaranteed price of $.05 (Five Cents) per share for our Clients’ shares, as mentioned in relevant part in the Purchase Agreement, but irrespective of whether they are issued in cash or stock they are contractually valued at $.05 per share as mentioned in Section 1.04 (a) of the Purchase Agreement:

Section 1.04 (a):

Sellers at the option of Cyberlux shall receive either a cash payment equal to the difference between the highest 100-day moving average price of Cyberlux common shares or an additional share issuance of enough shares priced at the 50-day moving average to make up the difference between the highest 100-day moving average price of Cyberlux common shares and the $0.05 goal price.

(See purchase Agreement attached as Exhibit B).

This provision contractually establishes the expectation damages value of shares issued to our clients' and states the price our clients should expect is $0.05 (Five Cents) per share. Since Cyberlux has breached our Clients' employment contracts since January 2024, by failing and continuing to fail to pay our Clients their contractually required Incentive Shares, our clients expectation damages are $0.05 (Five Cents) per share on the 12.5 million shares they never received. Thus, Cyberlux clearly owes Tucker and Whiteley $625,000 each ($1,250,000 cumulatively) in expectation damages for these unpaid shares. See Range v. Calvary Christian Fellowship, 530 S.W.3d 818, 823, "a party prevailing on its breach-of-contract claim may recover expectation damages, that is, the party may recover as damages the amount necessary to place it in the position it would have occupied if the contract had been performed." Nonetheless, the expectation damages of $0.05 per share are undisputed, therefore no trial or lawsuit is required, just payment of Cyberlux's debt to our Clients as stated in plain language terms in Contract drafted by Cyberlux.

Although there is no dispute regarding the $0.05 expectation cash value of said stock, if there were any dispute over such language, Cyberlux drafted this contract and any ambiguity is to be construed against the drafter of such provision as required by law. See Gonzalez v. Mission Am. Ins. Co., 795 S.W.2d 734, 737 (Tex. 1990) (requiring the construction of contractual ambiguity "against the party who drafted it since the drafter is responsible for the language used").

Nonetheless, there is no dispute regarding the $0.05 expectation value and should be paid immediately, as this is unpaid employment compensation due our Clients from Cyberlux, and is thus a priority payroll debt.

Further, Cyberlux must cure their Breach of Contract via cash to remunerate our clients for their Incentive Shares pay as it undisputed Cyberlux has failed to pay these shares for over 18 months now. Thus, our clients are entitled to recover these expectation damages as a result of Cyberlux's failure to pay, and continuing failure to pay their priority payroll debt.

TUCKER'S CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES

Lastly, in 2024, Tucker bought a home generator from Home Depot on 12 months same as cash financing (which requires making all scheduled payments in order to have no interest), believing he would be receiving a regular salary. However, in September and October of 2024, Cyberlux did not pay their employees at all, including our clients.

Because of this, Tucker was unable to make a payment on this account, resulting in reversion of the account to full interest charges in the amount of $8500, which would never have occurred had Tucker been able to make all scheduled payments on time. These consequential damages are reasonably foreseeable should an employer not pay its employees.

Furthermore, like the other damages, Cyberlux acknowledged they were responsible and would pay. This time it was admitted to in a meeting with Aaron Goodman (Cyberlux CFO) where Cyberlux admitted it owed this money to Tucker. Whiteley and Patrick Godfrey (new director of HR for Cyberlux) were also in attendance at this meeting as well. These facts are also confirmed in our Clients' Declarations (attached as Exhibit A).

CONCLUSION AND PRAYER

Cyberlux has breached its Employment Contracts with our Clients time and time again. To this day, Cyberlux has failed, and continues to fail to pay our Clients what they are lawfully due under the Contract. Therefore, our Clients Rick Tucker and Neill Whiteley are entitled to participate in Receivership action in connection with Cause #202448085, and styled as ATLANTIC WAVE HOLDINGS, LLC and SECURE COMMUNITY, LLC vs. CYBERLUX CORPORATION and MARK D. SCHMIDT, as follows:

- a. Tucker = $73,975.25 in back owed salary and bonuses, $625,000.00 for unpaid incentive shares, and $8500 in consequential damages, resulting in a sum total of $707,475.25 for Tucker, as detailed below.
- b. Whiteley = $62,537.56, in back owed salary and bonuses, $625,000.00 for unpaid incentive shares, resulting in a sum total of $687,537.56 for Whiteley, detailed below.
- c. The combined sum total of both Clients' damages from Cyberlux's Breach of Employment Contracts is $1,395,012.81, including attorney fees (25% of total) the total is $1,860,017.08. See attached attorney fee Declaration as Exhibit i.

It is our prayer, with gratitude in advance, that Honorable Receiver and/or Court, will with all haste, immediately apportion Rick Tucker and Neill Whiteley their damages in full, together with their reasonable attorney fees, from the amount recovered from Cyberlux in the aforementioned case.

Sincerely,

Daniel A. Ardmore

12. “We have it in writing from Cyberlux that it understands it still owes these unpaid wages and that it intended to pay this amount after the third HII shipment. However, Cyberlux never followed through on its promises, and our payroll has never been fully caught up.”
13. “We were under no obligation to wait for our pay, but we continued to hope and patiently wait, having no other alternative, which of course was very stressful.”

14. "Cyberlux has continued to fail to make good on their payroll obligations to us. The amount of cash payroll payments still due is, Tucker = $73,975.25, and for me = $62,537.56."
15. "Cyberlux agrees it owes this amount, does not dispute it, and promised it would finally pay after truck 3, but never did. Other attachments are included here which show this"
16. "On April 9, 2025, Aaron Goodman (CFO of Cyberlux) acknowledged and agreed that Cyberlux still owes us our unpaid wages."
17. "Also in April of 2025, Cyberlux initiated a layoff claiming they are still having financial difficulties. However, in this "layoff", we were the only two employees who were laid off and we are still owed back pay and incentive shares."
18. "It is undisputed that we performed every aspect of the employment Contract with Cyberlux. According to the Employment Contract we are entitled to 12.5 million shares for the year 2024, valued at $.05 (Five Cents) per share under Cyberlux's Incentive Plan."
19. "Cyberlux has failed and continues to fail to pay our incentive shares per their employment contract."
20. "Cyberlux does not dispute and agrees that they have not paid us 12.5 million shares under our Employment Contract for Incentive Plan."
21. "We are due 12.5 million shares each as of January 2024, as incentive pay based on the net revenue of the company per our Employment Contract."
22. "Beginning January of 2024, based on the net revenue incentive chart above, Cyberlux began paying our salary at $250,000 per year as stated in the Employment Contract, because the fiscal year net revenue achievement had been met in January 2024, due to an award of a US Government contract in the amount of $80 million dollars, for Drones."

23. "There is no dispute that this Revenue Achievement was met. This is further evidenced by Cyberlux's increase in our salary to $250,000 beginning January of 2024"
24. "Our 2024 salary is stated in the Employment Contract chart right alongside the incentive stock award of 12.5 million shares, which should have also been paid to us in January, but never was."
25. "Cyberlux admits that the requirement for the incentive stock shares has been met, but have given excuse after excuse for failing to transfer our shares to us."
26. "We have attached our most recent stock transfer statements, showing that we only ever received the 25 million shares from the purchase agreement, but never received the 12.5 million in Incentive Shares per our Employment Contract."
27. "Cyberlux has failed now for over 18 months to issue us these additional shares per our Employment Contract. Again, Cyberlux does not dispute these incentive shares have not been paid."
28. "Per our Contract, these shares have an agreed cash value of $.05 (Five Cents) per share, which is what we understood and expected to get from Cyberlux per the Purchase Agreement."
29. "For these 12.5 million incentive plan shares, Cyberlux now owes $625,000 each in expectation damages on these shares, because they have failed and continue to fail to issue us the share it owes us."
30. "Lastly, in 2024, Tucker bought a home generator from Home Depot on 12 months same as cash financing (which requires making all scheduled payments in order to have no interest), believing he would be receiving a regular salary."
31. "However, in September and October of 2024, Cyberlux did not pay their employees at all, including our salaries."

32. "Because of this, Tucker was unable to make a payment on this account, resulting in reversion of the account to full interest charges in the amount of $8500, which would never have occurred had Tucker been able to make all scheduled payments on time."
33. "Like the other amounts due us, Cyberlux has acknowledged they were responsible and said would pay, in a meeting with Aaron Goodman (Cyberlux CFO) where Cyberlux admitted it owed this money to Tucker. Myself and Patrick Godfrey (new director of HR for Cyberlux) were also in attendance at this meeting as well."
34. "There is no dispute here, as Cyberlux has already admitted and/or agreed they owe us these amounts, and have failed to pay. As a result, Cyberlux owes us the following in Breach of Contract/Expectation Damages:
- a. Tucker = $73,975.25 in back owed salary and bonuses, $625,000.00 for unpaid incentive shares, and $8500 in consequential damages, resulting in a sum total of $707,475.25 for Tucker.
  - b. Myself = $62,537.56, in back owed salary and bonuses, $625,000.00 for unpaid incentive shares, resulting in a sum total of $687,537.56 for myself.
  - c. The combined sum total of both our damages from Cyberlux's Breach of Employment Contracts is $1,395,012.81, including attorney fees (25% of the total) the total is $1,860,017.08.
35. "It is my prayer, with gratitude in advance, that Honorable Receiver and/or Court, will with all haste immediately apportion us our damages in full, together with their reasonable attorney fees, from the amount recovered from Cyberlux."
36. "Further Declarant sayeth not."

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed in Harris County, Texas, on June 3, 2025.

All benefits, contributions, and premiums relating to each Benefit Plan have been timely paid in accordance with the terms of such Benefit Plan and all applicable Laws and accounting principles. Benefits accrued under any unfunded Benefit Plan have been paid, accrued, or adequately reserved for to the extent required by GAAP.

(g) Neither the execution of this Agreement nor any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will, either alone or in combination with any other event: (i) entitle any current or former director, officer, employee, independent contractor, or consultant of the Company to any severance pay, increase in severance pay, or other payment; (ii) accelerate the time of payment, funding, or vesting, or increase the amount of compensation (including stock-based compensation) due to any such individual; (iii) limit or restrict the right of the Company to amend or terminate any Benefit Plan; (iv) increase the amount payable under any Benefit Plan; (v) result in any "excess parachute payments" within the meaning of Section 280G(b) of the Code; or (vi) require a "gross-up" or other payment to any "disqualified individual" within the meaning of Section 280G(c) of the Code.

Section 3.20 Taxes.

Such Tax Returns are true, correct, and complete in all respects. All Taxes due and owing by the Company (whether or not shown on any Tax Return) have been timely paid. No extensions or waivers of statutes of limitations have been given or requested with respect to any Taxes of the Company. (d) Sellers is not a "foreign person" as that term is used in Treasury Regulations Section 1.1445-2. (b) All transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp, registration, value added, and other such Taxes and fees (including any penalties and interest) incurred in connection with this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents shall be borne and paid by Sellers when due. Sellers shall, at its own expense, timely file any Tax Return or other document with respect to such Taxes or fees (and Buyer shall cooperate with respect thereto as necessary).

(c) Buyer shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, all Tax Returns required to be filed by the Company after the Closing Date with respect to any taxable period or portion thereof ending on or before the Closing Date and all Straddle Period Tax Returns. Any such Tax Return shall be prepared in a manner consistent with past practice (unless otherwise required by Law) and without a change of any election or any accounting method.

Section 6.02 Straddle Period. In the case of Taxes that are payable with respect to a Straddle Period, the portion of any such Taxes that are allocated to Pre-Closing Tax Periods (as defined in Section 6.04) for purposes of this Agreement shall be: (a) in the case of Taxes: (i) based upon, or related to, income, receipts, profits, wages, capital, or net worth; (ii) imposed in connection with the sale, transfer, or assignment of property; or (iii) required to be withheld, the amount of Taxes which would be payable if the taxable year ended with the Closing Date; and (b) in the case of other Taxes, the amount of such Taxes for the entire period multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the period ending on the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire period.

Dear Mr. Whiteley,

1. Offer and Position

This offer of employment is conditioned on your satisfactory completion of certain requirements, as more fully explained in this letter, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this letter.

2. Duties

In your capacity as Director of Engineering and CTO, you will perform duties and responsibilities that are commensurate with your position and such other duties as may be assigned to you from time to time. You will report directly to Larson Jay Isely, Executive Vice President and General Manager of Cyberlux Corporation's Unmanned Aircraft Solutions (UAS) Business Unit. You agree to devote your full business time, attention and best efforts to the performance of your duties and to the furtherance of the Company's interests.

3. Location

Your principal place of employment shall be at our corporate office located at 21631 Rhodes Rd. Suite A105, Spring, TX 77388, subject to business travel as needed to properly fulfill your employment duties and responsibilities.

4. Start Date and Employment Agreement Duration

Subject to satisfaction of all of the conditions described in this letter, this offer is based on a mutually acceptable start date (the "Start Date"). The terms of this Employment Agreement shall remain in force for a duration of three years beginning on the start date with early termination only by mutual agreement of the parties or termination by the Company "for-cause." Upon the completion of the three-year term, continued employment shall be subject to a mutually agreed upon renewal of this agreement, to a new replacement Employment Agreement entered into by the two parties, or by a Texas "at-will" employment relationship between Employee and the Company.

5. Base Salary

In consideration of your services, you will be paid an initial base salary of $120,000 per year, subject to review from time to time, payable in accordance with the standard payroll practices of the Company and subject to all withholdings and deductions as required by law.

6. Annual Bonus

During your employment, you will be eligible to receive bonus payments of $10,000 at the end of the following months: May 2022, August 2022, November 2022, March 2023, June 2023, September 2023, and December 2023. You must remain continuously employed through the bonus payment date to be eligible to receive any such bonus payment.

7. Net Revenue Incentive Plan

During your employment, you will be eligible to receive net revenue incentive bonuses of both common stock awards and annual salary increases through the 2025 fiscal year based on the following Net Revenue Incentive Plan. "Net Revenue" is defined as gross revenue less any product

CMW Fiscal Year Net Revenue Achievement	Incentive Stock Award	Executive Annual Base Salary
$3,000,000	5 million shares	$160,000
$5,000,000	5 million shares	$175,000
$7,500,000	10 million shares	$200,000
$10,000,000	12.5 million shares	$250,000

returns, contract pricing differences, or any other transactions recognized by generally accepted accounting principles as items that reduce gross revenue to net revenue.

You must remain continuously employed through the bonus payment date to be eligible to receive any such bonus payment.

8. Background Checks and Drug Testing

From time to time, Company may require background checks (including conviction records), and drug testing. By signing this Agreement, Employee agrees to cooperate in taking any such tests, truthfully provide all information for these tests, and sign any consents that may be legally required for the background and credit checks as well as drug testing.

9. Confidentiality

9.1 Employee understands that, in the course of employment with Company, Employee will receive certain confidential information concerning Catalyst Machineworks, LLC, 100% owned by Cyberlux Corporation, their customers, methods, processes, pricing and projects (“Confidential Information”). Employee agrees to hold in confidence all such Confidential Information and will not use Confidential Information outside the scope of Employee’s employment and will not disclose Confidential Information to any third party without Company’s prior written consent which consent may be withheld at the sole discretion of Company.

9.2 The parties agree that no confidentiality obligation exists with respect to information which: (i) is in the public domain at the time of disclosure; (ii) enters the public domain through publication or is otherwise rightfully disclosed; or (iii) is rightfully disclosed by a third party.

9.3 Employee’s obligations under this Section 9 shall survive termination of this Agreement.

9.4 This Agreement is also considered “Confidential Information” belonging to Company, and Employee shall not disclose any portion thereof to any persons either inside or outside Catalyst Machineworks, LLC, 100% owned by Cyberlux Corporation, unless there is an express need to know, as determined by Company, in its sole discretion. Employee understands that failure to comply with this paragraph may be grounds for dismissal.

10. Non-Competition

10.1 Employee agrees that, during the course of employment with Company, Employee will not act in a manner inconsistent with Company interest or benefit and will not, directly or indirectly, engage in any competitive business activity, whether or not such business activity is pursued for profit or other monetary or business advantage.

10.2 Employee agrees that, for a period of twenty-four (24) months following the end of employment with Company, Employee will not solicit for himself or any newly started company or existing company, or aid any competitor of Company or Cyberlux Corporation, or any Catalyst Machineworks, LLC customer in hiring or contracting with any person (i) employed by or under contract with Company or Cyberlux Corporation; or (ii) who was employed by or under contract with Company or Cyberlux Corporation, during the time Employee was employed by Company. "Company or Cyberlux Corporation customer" means any entity or person that was a Company or Cyberlux Corporation customer at any time during Employee’s employment with Company or Cyberlux Corporation.

10.3 Employee agrees not to seek employment with any Company or Cyberlux Corporation customer, to whom he has been introduced for a period of twenty-four (24) months following the end of employment with Company unless Company has agreed in writing to waive the provisions of this Section 10.

10.4 Employee agrees that to assist and participate in the conversion process should Cyberlux Corporation elect to convert Employee from employment with Catalyst Machineworks, LLC to employment directly with Cyberlux Corporation.

10.5 Employee's obligations under this Section 10 shall survive termination of this Agreement.

10.6 Each of the restrictions contained in this Section 10 constitutes independent covenants which may be enforced regardless of any other claim as to the making or breach of this or any other section of this Agreement. To the extent any of the foregoing restrictions are overly broad, the restriction shall not be deemed null and void, but shall be enforced to the extent determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be reasonable and appropriate.

10.7 Notwithstanding all restrictions contained in Section 10.1 through 10.5, should a Trigger Event as described in Section 1.04 (b) of the Purchase Agreement whereby Cyberlux Corporation acquired Catalyst Machineworks, LLC, dated March 30, 2022 be deemed to have taken place as mutually agreed by Employee and the CEO of Cyberlux Corporation, all Non-Competition restrictions in Sections 10.1 through 10.5 herein shall be waived by Cyberlux Corporation.

11. Intellectual Property

11.1 Employee understands and agrees that any and all reports, drawings, documentation, inventions and all other work products subject to intellectual property protection (including, but not limited to, copyright, trademark, servicemark, trade secret and patent) which Employee conceives and/or creates during Employee's employment with Company or Cyberlux Corporation shall be considered works made for hire (hereinafter "Work Product") and shall be the sole and exclusive property of Company and Cyberlux Corporation. If by operation of applicable law, any of the Work Product, including all related intellectual property rights, is not owned in its entirety by Company and Cyberlux Corporation, automatically upon creation, then Employee hereby assigns to Company and Cyberlux Corporation, all ownership of all such Work Product, including all related intellectual property rights. Employee agrees to provide any and all assistance required to perfect copyrights, patents, registrations and other protections that may be available to Company.

11.2 Employee agrees not to use any intellectual property belonging to any third party (including, but not limited to, copyrights, trademarks, servicemarks, trade secrets and patents) during the course of Employee's employment with Company or Cyberlux Corporation.

12. Benefits and Perquisites

You will be eligible to participate in the employee benefit plans and programs generally available to the Company's executives, including the 401(K) plan, health insurance plan, and life insurance plan when available, on or about Q2 2022, subject to the terms and conditions of such plans and programs. You will be entitled to two weeks (10 business days) of paid vacation days plus ten (10) holidays in accordance with the Company's policies in effect from time to time. You will also be entitled to the fringe benefits and perquisites that are made available to other similarly situated executives of the Company. The Company reserves the right to amend, modify or terminate any of its benefit plans or programs at any time and for any reason.

13. Withholding

All forms of compensation paid to you as an employee of the Company shall be less all applicable withholdings.

14. At-will Employment

Following the conclusion of your initial three-year Employment Agreement described herein, Texas is an employment at-will state, meaning your employment will be at-will such that you or the Company may terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without cause, and with or without notice and for any reason or no particular reason. Although your compensation and benefits may change from time to time, the at-will nature of your employment may only be changed by a newly executed agreement signed by an authorized officer of the Company.

15. Miscellaneous

15.1 No amendment, modification or waiver of this Agreement or any of its provisions shall be binding unless made in writing and duly signed by both parties. A failure by either party to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall in no way be construed to be a waiver of such provision. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all previous agreements, promises, representations, understandings and negotiations, whether written or verbal. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be deemed by any tribunal of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, it shall be modified as necessary to render it enforceable to the maximum extent permissible, and shall be enforced accordingly. In the event that, notwithstanding the foregoing, a tribunal of competent jurisdiction shall refuse to enforce any of the provisions contained in this Agreement, the remaining provisions hereof shall not in any way be impaired or affected thereby, unless the absence of the affected provision materially adversely impairs the substantive rights of either party hereto, provided, that in the latter event the parties hereto shall use their best efforts to replace the invalidated provision by a valid, legal and enforceable provision which, insofar as practical, implements the purposes hereof.

15.2 The paragraph headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

16. Governing Law

This offer letter shall be governed by the laws of North Carolina, without regard to conflict of law principles.

17. Representations

DECLARATION OF ATTORNEY DANIEL A. ARDMORE

My name is Daniel A. Ardmore, and I am an attorney licensed by the State of Texas, in good standing, holding Texas Bar No. 24142224. My date of birth is Oct. 01, 1975. My address is 802 Travis St, Suite 100, Houston, TX 77002. I declare under penalty of perjury that the contents of this declaration are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

1. I am attorney for Phillip (Rick) Tucker, and Neill Whiteley.
3. I am licensed to practice in the State of Texas and experienced in litigation cases in District Courts as well as County Courts in Brazoria, Harris, Fort Bend and Montgomery Counties.
4. I am a 1995 graduate from South Texas College of Law where I attained Dean's List for two semesters, and received the Cali award in three classes.
5. I have represented Phillip (Rick) Tucker, and Neill Whiteley from May 2025 to present in this matter. Employer Cyberlux Corporation breached their Employment Contract with Tucker and Whiteley and I was retained to represent their interests in this matter.
6. I have put in substantial long hours since being retained and have performed legal services on behalf of Clients in attempting to recover their unpaid employment compensation. This complex matter also includes contractual and financial analysis of the merger and/or acquisition of my Clients former business, much detailed review of various contracts, stock issuances, lack of stock issuances, claim notification and other post-judgment litigation work and analysis, communications with Appointed Receiver, demand and notification, preparing affidavits/declaration, evidence evaluation and preparation, global case strategy and evaluation, in effort for claims to be included in and participation in Receivership action, among other tasks.
7. My customary legal fee for such matters is $550/hr. or 35% contingency. However, in this matter I have discounted fee to 25% of total recovery.
8. I am familiar with the usual and customary charges for services rendered by attorneys in Harris, Fort Bend, Montgomery, and Brazoria County Texas. The charges for services I rendered are reasonable in amount and were necessary to perform professional services on behalf of my clients Phillip (Rick) Tucker, and Neill Whiteley.
9. My opinions on the fees incurred by my Clients for the work performed by me or my firm is based on relevant case law regarding the eight factors courts look to in determining the appropriate amount of fee:

- a. the time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly;
  - b. the likelihood, if apparent to the client, that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer;
  - c. the fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services;
  - d. the amount involved and the results obtained;
  - e. the time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances;
  - f. the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client;
  - g. the experience, reputation, and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services; and
  - h. whether the fee is fixed or contingent on results obtained or uncertainty of collection before the legal services have been rendered.
10. The time and labor expended by me in this matter were proportional to scope of clients' allegations of breach of contract, and resulting complexities regarding post judgment legal services, and merger and/or acquisition, fee being charged is commensurate with amount of work and risk related to a contingency payment arrangement.
11. I incurred 57.78 hours in this matter thus far and expect many more hours will follow before this matter is fully resolved.
12. Thus far, no Court Costs and expenses have been incurred in this matter.
